

Laws of Maryland, title "Justices of the Peace", sub-title "Trial Magistrate System", be, and the same is hereby, repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

93. (Appointment) The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint for every county of the State one justice of the peace for each of the election districts thereof, and such number of justices of the peace at large in the several counties, to be designated "Trial Magistrates", as is hereinafter specified in Section 100; and in Prince George's County the Governor, in his discretion, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, may appoint not more than two additional justices of the peace for any and all of the election districts of said County, at the compensation and salaries provided by law; and all of the justices of the peace in said County may exercise the powers, and shall have the jurisdiction, vested in them by law, in any and all of the election districts of said County.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 6, 1943.

CHAPTER 922.

(Senate Bill 560)

AN ACT to repeal Sections 28 and 29 of Article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Allegany County", sub-title "Birds and Game", said sections relating to bounties for the killing of foxes, wild-cats, hawks, etc.

Whereas, in Article 25, Section 2 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), the County Commissioners of Allegany County have the power to fix bounties for the killing of certain wild animals; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 28 and 29 of Article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Allegany County", sub-title "Birds and Game", be and they are hereby repealed.
