SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 105 of Article 12 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Garrett County," sub-title "County Commissioners," as said section was amended by Chapter 286 of the Acts of 1939, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

105. The said treasurer shall at the close of each week, deposit in a bank to be designated by the comptroller of the treasury of Maryland, all State taxes and money due the State which may have come into his hands during the week to the credit of the comptroller of the State Treasury, and shall receive therefor from said bank a certificate of deposit which he shall immediately forward to the comptroller, showing the amount placed to his credit; and said treasurer shall in like manner deposit all money in his hands at at the end of each week received for county taxes and dues, in such bank as he may see fit, to the credit of the county treasurer of Garrett County, which money shall be drawn only by the treasurer making such deposit, and only for claims which may have been levied and ordered paid by the county commissioners, but if sufficient taxes have not been collected to pay such orders as have been drawn against the levy, the County Commissioners are hereby authorized, if necessary, to borrow, on the faith and credit of said county, after March 1st of each year a sum not to exceed the total uncollected taxes for the current year at the legal rate of interest, the same to be repaid from current tax collections. If said tax collections shall prove insufficient to retire all of said indebtedness, the County Commissioners, in the year next succeeding the filing of the final report of the County Treasurer for the year in which such borrowing shall have taken place, shall levy such amount as may be necessary to repay said balance. He shall reserve out of the money collected by him for county purposes generally and public schools, a sufficient sum to pay the amount levied in each current year by said commissioners for public schools, and shall pay the same over to the board of county school commissioners of said county, as follows: one-fourth on or before the first day of April next succeeding the date of the levy; one-fourth on or before the first day of July next thereafter; one-fourth on or before the first day of October next there-
