

provided for in Section 88 of this Article; nor shall the appointment of any person by a county board of education as supervising teacher or helping teacher be valid without the written approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. And provided, further, that no supervising teacher, appointed under the provisions of this section or continued in office under the provisions of this section, shall be paid an annual salary of less than two thousand and forty dollars ($2,040), and if he or she has acted as supervising teacher in the State of Maryland for a period of four years, he or she shall be paid an annual salary of not less than two thousand three hundred and forty dollars ($2,340); and if he or she has acted as supervising teacher in the State of Maryland for a period of seven years, he or she shall be paid an annual salary of not less than two thousand six hundred and forty dollars ($2,640). With the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools, county boards of education may employ helping teachers under the conditions for supervising teachers prescribed in this section at an annual salary of six hundred dollars ($600) less than that paid to supervising teachers. The State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, out of the General State School Fund to the treasurer of the county board of education two-thirds of the annual salaries of the supervising teachers or helping teachers required by this section. County boards of education are free to employ as many additional supervising teachers or helping teachers as in their judgment are necessary, but the State shall not share in the payment of their salaries. The State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, to the Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore City two-thirds of the annual salaries of not more than ten supervising teachers.

(2) There shall be appointed in each county at least one attendance officer, whose duty it shall be to compel the regular attendance of children at school. Such person shall receive such compensation as the county board of education shall direct; provided that the appointment of any person as an attendance officer shall be invalid without the written approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. And provided, further, that no attendance officer, appointed under the provisions of this section or continued in office under the provisions of this section, shall be paid an annual salary of less than twelve hundred dollars ($1,200), and the State of Maryland shall pay, as hereinafter provided, out of the General State School Fund to the treasurer of the county board of education the entire annual salary of one attendance officer not to exceed twelve hundred dollars ($1,200), provided that the county board of education shall provide suitable individual means of transportation for the attendance officer. County boards of education may pay an
