

not exceeding fifty-four inches in the length of the staves, nor exceeding forty-eight inches across the head; and the owner or his agent of tobacco packed in any hogshead of greater dimensions shall repack the same in hogsheads of the size herein prescribed, at his own expense before the same shall be passed.

45. The true name of the owner of every hogshead or basket or other container of tobacco delivered for inspection or sale at any State warehouse in the City of Baltimore or at any established tobacco market in Maryland shall be legibly marked or stenciled, or attached, thereon; and the name of the State where grown shall also be printed, stenciled or stamped in large capitals on every hogshead or container or attached thereto or thereon; and it shall be the duty of the Inspector or the proprietor or manager of any market engaged in selling leaf tobacco in Maryland to retain every hogshead or basket or other container of tobacco not so marked or stenciled or attached until the true name of the owner thereof shall have been ascertained and placed thereon.

52. No person, firm or corporation shall purchase, sell or re-sell leaf tobacco without first obtaining a license therefor from the Commissioner of Tobacco Marketing and paying an annual license fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for such license. All fees received from licenses shall be paid by said Commissioner to the State Comptroller for the general funds of the State; provided, however, that no license shall be required for the sale of tobacco by the grower thereof or the owner of the land on which grown, and provided further, that the provisions of Sections 51 and 52 shall not apply to buying or selling agencies in Baltimore City.

Any person, firm or corporation selling or buying leaf tobacco contrary to the provisions of Sections 51 and 52 or the rules and regulations made by the said Commissioner of Tobacco Marketing is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each and every such violation. The State's Attorney of each county shall cooperate with the Commissioner of Tobacco Marketing in the enforcement of Sections 51 and 52.

54. It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of selling leaf tobacco on or through any established tobacco market in Maryland, to include with every check and/or account of every sale of tobacco for or on the account of the grower or person for whom sale was made, a statement showing the weight, price per pound and number of hogshead or basket or other con-
