

Article. It shall also be unlawful for any person to possess any alcoholic beverages upon which the taxes provided by Sections 48 and 49 of this Article have not been paid, unless otherwise provided in this Article. The tax provided for in Sections 48 and 49 of this Article shall not be payable with respect to alcohol and alcoholic beverages obtained in accordance with the provisions of Sub-sections (g) and (l) of this section.

(b) Homemade Wine. No license or permit shall be required for the manufacture of wine or cider exclusively for home consumption and not for sale.

(c) Lienholders. No license or permit shall be required in the case of any common carrier, warehouseman or other lienholder, exercising his right to sell alcoholic beverages under a lien, or any sheriff, constable, receiver, auctioneer, trustee, attorney, executor or administrator selling alcoholic beverages under an order of Court; but no such sale shall be made except to a license holder, and if the purchaser is a retail dealer, the person making the sale shall pay the taxes imposed by Sections 48 and 49 of this Article before delivery is made to the purchaser.

(d) Warehouse Receipts. Warehouse receipts covering alcoholic beverages on storage in bonded warehouses in this State may be purchased or sold, without a license, but no withdrawals or deliveries of such beverages shall be made in this State except to licensed manufacturers and wholesalers and subject to such regulations as the Comptroller may prescribe.

(e) Change of Domicile. A special permit may be issued by the Comptroller in certain cases which will authorize such permit holder, who is changing his domicile into the State of Maryland, to transport into Maryland his private stock of alcoholic beverages for personal consumption only.

(f) Druggists. No license or permit shall be required for the compounding or sale by druggists or apothecaries of medicinal, antiseptic or toilet preparations unfit for beverage purposes, nor for the compounding or sale of alcoholic beverages upon the written prescription of a qualified physician; but it shall be unlawful for any druggist or apothecary to sell alcoholic beverages for beverage purposes without a license.

(g) Non-Beverage Permits. Non-beverage permits shall be issued by the Comptroller, subject to such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, for the manufacture, use and sale of alcohol and alcoholic beverages used exclusively for scientific purposes, or for the manufacture of medicinal, antiseptic or
