

(b) Whenever the name of any person, who has made application for or obtained an operator's or chauffeur's license or the registration of a vehicle or a certificate of title, is thereafter changed by marriage or otherwise such person shall within thirty (30) days notify the Department of such former and new name, on a form furnished by the Department whereupon the Department shall issue a corrected title and registration certificate and license without charge.

(c) Whenever any person holding an unrevoked and unsuspended motor vehicle operator's license is required to submit such license to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for the purpose of recording a change of address or for any other purpose, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, issue to such person without a charge a temporary operator's license to be valid for not more than fifteen (15) days from the date of issuance.

(d) Violation of this section shall be deemed to be a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Ten ($10.00) Dollars.

32. LOST OR DAMAGED CERTIFICATE OF TITLE, REGISTRATION CERTIFICATES AND REGISTRATION PLATES. (a) In the event any certificate of title is lost, mutilated, or becomes illegible, the owner of the vehicle for which the same was issued, as shown by the records of the Department, shall immediately make application for and may obtain upon payment of fees prescribed in sub-section "f" of this section, a duplicate upon the applicant furnishing information satisfactory to the Department. Upon issuance of any duplicate certificate of title, legally obtained, the previous certificate last issued shall be void.

(b) In the event any registration certificate is mutilated or becomes illegible, the owner of the vehicle for which the same was issued, shall make immediate application for and may obtain a duplicate of said certificate of registration without charge upon furnishing satisfactory information to the Department.

(c) In the event any registration plate is mutilated, or becomes illegible the owner of the vehicle, for which the same was issued, shall make immediate application for and may obtain upon surrender of old plates a substitute registration under a new registration number, upon the applicant furnishing information satisfactory to the Department and upon payment of the fees prescribed in sub-section "f" of this section.

(d) In the event only one registration plate shall have become lost, mutilated or illegible the owner of said vehicle, for
