

tion rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary and compatible with the public interest with respect to the change or substitution of one engine in place of another in any motor vehicle.

35. DEPARTMENT TO ISSUE REGISTRATION BULLETINS. The Department shall compile and publish in books or bulletins a list of all registered vehicles and shall thereafter compile and publish supplements thereto. The list of registered vehicles shall be arranged serially according to the registration numbers assigned to registered vehicles and shall contain in addition the names and addresses of registered owners and a brief description of each vehicle including the engine, serial or other identifying number thereof.

Copies of such lists may be furnished free of charge to public officials of the State in the discretion of the Department which may also furnish copies of such lists to all other persons applying for the same at a price not exceeding twenty ($20.00) dollars per year.

36. REGISTRATION EXPIRES ON TRANSFER BY OWNER. (a) Whenever the owner of a registered vehicle transfers or assigns his title, or interest thereto, the registration of such vehicle shall expire unless said owner shall give to the purchaser written permission to use said registration plates for a period of ten days from the date of transfer; in case such permission be not given the owner shall remove the registration plates therefrom and may have such plates and the registration number thereon assigned to another vehicle upon payment of a fee of one ($1.00) dollar where such motor vehicle is of less or equal horsepower, tonnage, or chassis weight as that originally registered; or upon payment of the above fee of one ($1.00) dollar plus the difference between the fee originally paid for said registration plates and that due in case the new motor vehicle be properly registered in a higher class.

(b) A purchaser to whom has been given written permission to use original registration plates as provided by subsection (a) of this section shall remove said registration plates at the expiration of such ten days and promptly return them either to the original owner of the motor vehicle or the Department and it shall be unlawful for the purchaser or any person other than the person to whom such registration plates were originally issued to have the same in his possession after the expiration of such ten days whether in use or not; provided however that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed to prohibit the original owner from transferring said registration plates to another vehicle as hereinbefore provided.