

(c) Proof required under this section shall cover every person using or operating a motor vehicle under a rental agreement and shall also cover the person owning such motor vehicle.

(d) Whenever a person rents from another a motor vehicle without a driver, it shall be unlawful for the person so obtaining the use of said motor vehicle to permit another person to operate the said motor vehicle without first securing the permission of the person owning the said motor vehicle.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00).

109. OWNERS AND OPERATORS OF MOTOR VEHICLES AFTER CERTAIN CONVICTIONS. (a) Whenever the Department is required under any law of this State to revoke the operator's or chauffeur's license of any person upon receiving record of the conviction of such person for any offense under the motor vehicle laws of this State, the Department shall suspend any and all of the registration certificates or cards and registration plates issued for any motor vehicle registered in the name of the person so convicted as owner except that it shall not suspend such evidences of registration in the event such owner has previously given or shall immediately give and thereafter maintain, for a period of three (3) years, proof of financial responsibility in the manner specified by this Article with respect to each and every motor vehicle owned and registered by such person.

(b) The suspensions or revocations hereinbefore required shall remain in effect and the Department shall not issue to any such person any new license or any renewal of license or register or reregister in the name of such person any motor vehicle until permitted under the Motor Vehicle Laws of this State and not then unless and until said person gives proof of his financial responsibility in future.

(c) The Department shall take action as required in this section upon receiving evidence of any such conviction of any person in another State.

(d) For the purpose of administration of the provisions of this section the term conviction shall include a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, which forfeiture has not been vacated, upon a charge which upon conviction of the defendant requires the Department to revoke the license of such person.
