

298. RELEASE AFTER COMMITMENT. In cases of commitment to jail in default of payment of fine the supervisor, assistant supervisor or one of the court clerks shall have the power, upon suitable written order to the warden or other custodian, to release the prisoner at any time after commitment upon payment of the fine and costs imposed, provided however, that a credit of one dollar ($1.00) for each day of imprisonment actually served shall be deducted from the payments herein specified.

Records shall be kept by said supervisor, assistant supervisor or court clerks of such releases and credits and the fines and costs so received shall be remitted as in the case of fines and costs imposed and collected as otherwise provided herein.

299. CUSTODIAN NOT TO RELEASE PRISONER EXCEPT UPON OFFICIAL ORDER: The warden or other custodian of prisoners sentenced from the Traffic Court shall have no power or authority to release prisoners committed by Traffic Court Magistrates prior to the expiration of their terms as specified in the commitment papers except upon the written order of the supervisor, assistant supervisor or court clerks as herein provided, or upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

No fines, costs or other monies shall be paid to any warden or other custodian in cases from the Traffic Court.

300. SUPERVISOR-CLERICAL ASSISTANTS: There shall be certain clerical assistants to the Magistrates of the Traffic Court as hereinafter provided for, who shall be appointed by the Chief Magistrate of the Traffic Court and, after appointment, be under his supervision and control. One of said clerical assistants shall be designated as Supervisor. He or any clerical employees designated for that purpose shall have the power to fix the amount of and accept bail and he shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Chief Magistrate. There shall be an Assistant Supervisor who in addition to the duties which may be assigned to him by the Chief Magistrate, shall act in the absence of the Supervisor and shall at such time possess the same authority as the Supervisor.

301. COURT CLERKS: Such number of said clerical assistants as the Chief Magistrate shall deem necessary shall be designated court clerks and shall be assigned by the Chief Magistrate to duties in the court rooms when sessions of the Court are being held, and to such other duties as the Chief Magistrate shall prescribe.

302. SENIOR CLERKS: Such number of said clerical assistants as the Chief Magistrate shall deem necessary shall be designated senior clerks, who shall perform such duties as
