

directed to levy said tax in an amount sufficient to provide funds to meet the budget of the Kensington Volunteer Fire Department, Incorporated and also funds to meet the principal and interest maturity payments on the bonds hereby authorized and, in every such year, said tax shall be levied at such rate, not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as will produce sufficient funds for the maintenance and operation expenses hereinabove referred to and for the debt service on the bonds hereby authorized. If, at any time, said tax, levied at the maximum rate now or hereafter authorized by law, shall prove inadequate for the foregoing purposes, then the County Commissioners of Montgomery County be and it is hereby directed and empowered to levy unlimited ad valorem taxes upon all the assessable property within the corporate limits of the County sufficient in amount to make up the deficiency in the sum necessary to meet the principal and interest maturities of any of the bonds authorized hereby and outstanding at the time of such levy, it being the intention hereof that said bonds hereby authorized shall be issued upon the full faith and credit of the County Commissioners of Montgomery County, but that said debt service charges shall constitute a first lien upon the proceeds collected from the levy of the special ad valorem tax levied pursuant to the authority of Section 586 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Montgomery County (1939 Edition), hereinabove referred to. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as a modification or amendment of any of the provisions of Sections 586 and 587 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Montgomery County in so far as they relate to the normal operations of said Kensington Volunteer Fire Department, Incorporated, said Fire Board or the expenditure of the proceeds of said special tax, after deducting from said proceeds the amounts necessary for debt service on the bonds hereby authorized, as aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved March 23, 1943.
