

District, and to submit to the Legislature from time to time any other recommendations respecting legislation which the Commission, as a result of its activities, may regard as to the best interests of the District.

XII. Every act or omission designated as a misdemeanor in this Act, unless otherwise provided, shall be punishable before the Circuit Court or the proper trial magistrate or justice of the peace of the county in which such offense is committed and shall be brought by warrant or indictment upon the oath or information of any member of said Commission or any employee thereof, and the offender shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred ($100.00) dollars or thirty days in the County Jail, or both, in the discretion of the Court. Where such an act or omission is of a continuing nature or is persisted in, in violation of the provisions of this Act or of any rule or regulation formulated thereunder, a conviction for one offense shall not be a bar to a conviction for a continuation of such offense subsequent to the first or any succeeding conviction.

XIII. WHEREAS, a paper writing has been presented to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, In Probate, as and for the last Will of Violet Blair Janin who died in said District January 14, 1933, and probate of the same as such petitioned for by the Executors named therein, namely, Woodbury Blair of Washington, D. C., Blair Lee of Montgomery County, Maryland, and the National Savings and Trust Company of Washington, D. C., and

WHEREAS, further said paper writing contains a provision as follows:

ITEM XVII. I give and devise, in fee simple, the remaining portion of my farm, "The Moorings," near Silver Spring, Montgomery County, State of Maryland, from the trees fronting on the Brookville Pike and the road on the south, together with all improvements thereon, unto the State of Maryland, for the establishment of a public park thereon, in memory of my beloved brother, Jesup Blair, subject to the following conditions:

That this devise be accepted by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland within three years after the date of my death.

That ample provision shall be made for the perpetual maintenance of said property as a park open to the public.

That all of the trees now upon the property be preserved except such of them as it is absolutely necessary to remove in connection with the laying out of such park. It is my earnest
