

Council, it becomes necessary to rewrite the registration books because of such books having become so worn or filled by names so to be unusable or because of the establishment of another Precinct for election purposes making additional books necessary or for any other reason making it impractical to use the books formerly in use, the names of all persons now registered on such registration books, except those who have not voted for five years at either a regular or special election held in the Town of Mount Rainier, shall be transcribed on new and, or, additional registration books to be provided by the Mayor and Common Council. The work of transcribing the names of the voters to the new and, or, additional books shall be done, under the supervision and direction of the Supervisors of Election, by persons of intelligence who write a clear legible hand, easy to read, at least one-half of such employees having no official connection or relationship with the Mayor and Common Council holding office at the time the work is performed. The persons selected for this work of transcribing will be nominated by the Supervisors of Election and approved by the Mayor and Common Council and they will be paid such compensation as the Mayor and Common Council may direct.

In the case of persons who are registered on the present registration books who have not voted at least once at a general or special town election in the five calendar years preceding the recopying of such books, the Supervisors of Election shall send them a notice to the address given on said registration books, notifying them that their names will not appear on the new registration books, and warning them it will be necessary for them to appear before the Registration Officials in the precinct in which they reside on one of the regular registration days and register in order to be entitled to vote, and the notice so sent by the Supervisors shall take the place of a transfer in the event that any such person does not at the time of applying for registration, live in the Precinct in which he or she was formerly registered; but before sending such notice said Supervisors of Election shall publish for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in Prince George's County, showing the intent and purpose of said notices.

After the new registration books are prepared in accordance with this section, it shall be the duty of the Registration Officials in each Precinct of the Town, when they sit as Registration Officers, to strike from the registration books of the respective precincts, the names of all persons registered on said books who have not voted at least once at a general or special town election in the five preceding calendar years or in the current year, and such person so stricken from said
