

3. (c) Duration of Benefits.

Any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to whichever is the lesser of (1) twenty-three times his weekly benefit amount, and (2) one-fourth of the wages paid to him during his base period for insured work; provided that such total amount of benefits, if not a multiple of $1.00, shall be computed to the next higher multiple of $1.00. The amount of benefits otherwise payable to any individual during any benefit year may, in the discretion of the Board, be decreased by an amount not greater than his weekly benefit amount times the number of weeks for which under subsection (a), (b), or (c) of Section 5 he is disqualified for benefits in such benefit year.

3. (d) (2) The term "trainee" as used in this subsection means an individual who entered military service after April 1, 1940, who continued such service for not less than ninety consecutive days and whose military service was terminated on or before March 31, 1945.

3. (d) (4) For the purpose of Sections 3 (b) (1), 3 (c) and 4 (e) of this Act, the base period of a trainee for his first benefit year shall, Section 19 (a) of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, extend from the first day of the base period for the benefit year in which he was inducted into military service through the last day of the base period fixed under the other provisions of this Act for such benefit year and for the second benefit year shall extend through the last day of the base period fixed under the other provisions of this Act for such second benefit year; provided, however, that the aggregate total amount of benefits paid to a trainee with respect to weeks of unemployment occurring within his first and second benefit year shall not exceed one-fourth of his wages for insured work during the base period fixed under this subsection for such second benefit year.

BENEFIT ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS

4. (e) He has during his base period been paid wages for insured work equal to not less than the amount appearing in Column C of the table in Section 3 (b) (1), on the line on which, in Column B of that table, appears his weekly benefit amount.

DISQUALIFICATION FOR BENEFITS

5. (e) if it shall be found by the Board that total or partial unemployment is due to pregnancy, provided, in
