

33M. No person in the Classified City Service shall for any reason be under any obligation to contribute to any political fund, and no person shall knowingly, directly or indirectly, in person or by letter, request or solicit the payment of any political assessment, subscription or contribution from any person in the Classified City Service.

33N. Any violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title relating to the Civil Service Commission, or any wilful use of any corrupt means in connection with any examination, appointment, promotion, reduction, transfer or reinstatement shall be deemed a misdemeanor and, upon conviction in a Court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a time not exceeding twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

33-O. Any person heretofore or hereafter inducted into the land or naval forces of the United States for training and service pursuant to the Act of Congress known as the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, or any subsequent Acts of a similar nature, and any member of any reserve component of the land or naval forces of the United States, who is on active duty or service, or who may be ordered or assigned to active duty or service, as well as any person who, during the present war, has heretofore enlisted in or who may hereafter enlist in the armed forces of the United States, and who, because of such induction or in order to perform such active duty or service, or because of such enlistment, has left or leaves a position, other than a temporary position, in the employ of the City of Cumberland shall (1) if he receives a certificate of satisfactory completion of such duty, (2) if he is still qualified to perform the duties of such position, and (3) if he makes application for re-employment within 40 days after he is relieved from such active duty or service, be restored to such position or to a position of like seniority, status and pay. Upon reinstatement, the time spent by such person in the military service shall be added to his seniority, he shall be entitled to the same pay which persons having the same seniority and doing the same kind of work in the department or service involved are receiving, and he shall be restored to the status in the Classified City Service held by him at the time he entered such military service, or which he would have held if he had been in the employ of the City when such position was placed under the provisions of this sub-title, just as though his employment had not been interrupted.
