

C. The Committee shall publish the results of such referendum and shall thereafter consider and determine whether the division and/or combination requested in the petition is administratively practicable and feasible. If the Committee shall determine that the division and/or combination of such district or districts is not administratively practicable and feasible, it shall record such determination and deny the petition. If the Committee shall determine that the division and/or combination is administratively feasible and practicable, it shall record such determination and proceed with the division and/or combination of the district or districts in the manner hereafter provided. In making such determination the Committee shall give due record and weight to the attitudes of the occupiers of lands lying within the defined boundaries of the districts to be affected, the number of land-occupiers eligible to vote in such referendum who shall have voted, the proportion of the votes cast in such referendum in favor of the division and/or combination of the district or districts to the total number of votes cast, the approximate wealth and income of the land-occupiers of the proposed new district, or districts, the probable expense of carrying on erosion-control operations within such district or districts, and such other economic and social factors as may be relevant to such determination, having due regard to the legislative determinations set forth in Section 46 of this Article. Provided, however, that no district or districts may be divided and/or combined if a majority of land-occupiers vote against either the particular division or combination which is submitted to their vote as hereinabove provided.

D. If the Committee shall determine that the proposed division and/or combination is practicable and feasible in its entirety, it shall appoint for each district to result from the proposed division and/or combination two (2) supervisors to act with three (3) supervisors to be elected in accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in Sections 50 and 51 of this sub-title (except that the nominating petitions shall be filed within thirty (30) days of the determination of the Committee and notice thereof to the eligible voters), as the governing body of each such district. Any existing supervisor shall be eligible to be appointed or elected as a new supervisor. The Committee shall then certify to the new supervisors, and to the supervisors of each existing district which is to be divided and/or combined (hereinafter sometimes called old supervisors), the determination of the Committee as to the administrative practicability and feasibility of the division and/or combination, the boundaries of the proposed districts, the names, addresses, and positions of the supervisors appointed or elected for each new district and
