

380A. The said Sheriff may employ a competent cook to prepare meals for prisoners in said jail and to perform such other duties as the said Sheriff may designate and the said sheriff shall be allowed a sum not exceeding ten ($10.00) dollars per week to pay the wages of said cook during such time as said cook may be employed. The County Commissioners may pay said sum upon receipt by them of a sworn statement as provided in Section 380D.

380B. The said Sheriff shall receive an annual salary of twenty-five hundred ($2500.00) dollars, to be paid to him in monthly installments by the County Commissioners. The said Sheriff may appoint a deputy sheriff who shall hold office or be removed at the pleasure of the Sheriff. Such deputy sheriff shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred ($1500.00) dollars to be paid to him in monthly installments by the County Commissioners.

380C. The said Sheriff shall be reimbursed for the expenses incurred by him in the use of his automobile by him or by his deputy in the performance of the duties of his office at the rate of five cents (5¢) per mile. Said reimbursement shall be made after a sworn statement has been submitted to the County Commissioners as provided in Section 380D. In addition thereto the said Sheriff shall be allowed and paid annually during his term, either when his term commences or when the County Commissioners may see fit, the sum of four hundred ($400) dollars toward the purchase of an automobile to be used by the Sheriff and his deputy for the general work of his office, which automobile is to be maintained by the Sheriff without any cost to the County other than the five cents (5¢) per mile allowance above referred to.

380D. The said Sheriff shall furnish monthly to the County Commissioners statements sworn to by him which shall set forth in detail all expenses incurred by his office, including but not limited to, all sums spent for provisions, supplies, mileage and telephone service, and upon receipt of said statements the County Commissioners may pay to the said Sheriff such sum or sums to which he may be entitled under the foregoing sections.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 4, 1943.
