

men's Compensation," sub-title "Application of Article; Extra-hazardous Employment," said new sub-section to be known as Sub-section (41A) and to follow immediately after Sub-section (41) of said section, providing that certain employees in connection with the operation of vehicles shall be entitled to the benefits of the workmen's compensation law, whether the injury was sustained within this State or elsewhere.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new sub-section be and it is hereby added to Section 33 of Article 101 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Workmen's Compensation," sub-title "Application of Article; Extra-hazardous Employment," said new sub-section to be known as Sub-section (41A), to follow immediately after Sub-section (41) of said section, and to read as follows:

33. (41A) All truck drivers, helpers, mechanics, loaders and other persons employed to perform their work in the State and elsewhere, in or about the operation of trucks, wagons or other vehicles, propelled by mechanical or other power, who are citizens or residents of this State, employed by a person, firm or corporation having a place of business within this State, whether the injury or death for which compensation is asked was sustained within this State or elsewhere, provided, however, that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to farm laborers, and provided, further, that no persons shall be entitled to recover compensation for injuries sustained or death incurred under both the laws of this State and the laws of the State in which such injuries or death occurred and the filing of a claim under the laws in this State shall constitute an election to recover compensation under the laws of such State and no other.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 4, 1943.

CHAPTER 482.

(House Bill 107)

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 44A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Housing Authorities", said new section to be known as Section 11A,