

WHEREAS, it was intended, if not actually accomplished, by Chapter 4 of the Acts of 1920 to repeal Section 590 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition); and

WHEREAS, the provisions of Section 590 are in a large measure a duplication and unnecessarily in conflict with the provisions of Section 589 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition); therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 590 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore County", sub-title "Roads and Streets", be, and it is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 4, 1943.

---

CHAPTER 504.

(House Bill 327)

AN ACT to add four new sections to Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore County", said new sections to be known respectively as Sections 104B, 104C, 104D and 104E of said Article and to be under a new sub-title "Civilian Defense", to follow immediately after Section 104A of said Article, to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to appropriate funds, to levy taxes and to take such other positive action as they may deem necessary and proper for purposes of public defense in time of actual or impending war, insurrection, riot, or other emergencies such as floods, fires, disasters or epidemics of disease and for the defense of Baltimore County or the safeguarding of its people and property, and to alleviate suffering in time of actual or impending disaster or peril or to otherwise aid the State of Maryland and the United States in connection with National Defense and Civilian Defense, or for any other purpose necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety or welfare; to ratify all acts done and all expenditures made by the County Commissioners in connection with Civilian Defense, and to borrow upon the faith and credit