

the retirement of said certificates of indebtedness. In the event the proceeds of the levy of such tax plus the proceeds of such special assessments shall at any time be insufficient for the purposes aforesaid, the County Commissioners of Montgomery County shall, in the next succeeding fiscal year, and annually thereafter until such deficiency is cured, levy ad valorem taxes upon all property subject to assessment for taxation within the corporate limits of Montgomery County sufficient to make up such deficiency.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Montgomery County is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and sell temporary certificates of indebtedness to evidence the borrowing hereinabove authorized, said Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County to have the same discretionary powers hereinabove enumerated, with respect to said temporary certificates of indebtedness, as are hereby granted to said Board with respect to the permanent certificates of indebtedness, provided, however, that said temporary certificates of indebtedness shall be issued to mature within eighteen (18) months from date of issue. The proceeds of the sale of said temporary certificates of indebtedness shall be used to defray the cost of construction of the aforesaid streets, sidewalks, curbs and gutters as the work progresses and before the levy of special assessments can be made upon the property specially benefited thereby. The interest on such temporary certificates of indebtedness shall constitute one of the items of cost of such improvements and shall be included in the amount levied, as hereinabove provided, against the property abutting said improvements. When the said construction work shall have been completed and the levy of special assessments made therefor against the abutting property found to be specially benefited thereby and the permanent certificates of indebtedness hereinabove authorized shall have been issued and sold, said Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County shall use the proceeds of the sale of said permanent certificates of indebtedness to liquidate said temporary certificates of indebtedness. In the event the proceeds of the sale of the permanent certificates of indebtedness shall be insufficient for the foregoing purpose, or in the event the collection of the special assessments hereinabove authorized shall be enjoined or rendered impossible for any reason, the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County is hereby authorized and empowered to provide for the payment of said temporary certificates of indebtedness and the interest thereon out of the proceeds of the special ad valorem taxes hereinabove authorized or from County-wide taxation, if the same shall prove necessary, it being the intention hereof that said temporary certificates of indebtedness may also be
