

67. (BOND.) (A) Upon the appointment of a guardian, he shall execute and file a bond to be approved by the court in an amount not less than the estimated value of the personal estate and anticipated income of the ward during the ensuing year. The bond shall be in the form and be conditioned as required of guardians appointed under the general guardianship laws of this State. The court may from time to time require the guardian to file an additional bond.

(B) Where a bond is tendered by a guardian with personal sureties, there shall be at least two such sureties and they shall file with the court a certificate under oath which shall describe the property owned, both real and personal, and shall state that each is worth the sum named in the bond as the penalty thereof over and above all his debts and liabilities and the aggregate of other bonds on which he is principal or surety and exclusive of property exempt from execution. The court may require additional security or may require a corporate surety bond, the premium thereon to be paid from the ward's estate.

68. (PETITIONS AND ACCOUNTS, NOTICES AND HEARINGS.)

(A) Every guardian, who has received or shall receive on account of his ward any money or other thing of value from the Veterans Administration, at the expiration of one year from date of his appointment, and every three years thereafter on the anniversary date of his appointment, or as much oftener as the court may require, shall file with the court a full, true, and accurate account under oath of all moneys or other thing of value received by him, all earnings, interest or profits derived therefrom, and all property acquired therewith and of all disbursements therefrom, and showing the balance thereof in his hands at the date of the account and how invested. Each year when not required to file an account with the court, the guardian shall file an account with the proper office of the Veterans Administration. If the interim account be not filed with the Veterans Administration, or, if filed, shall be unsatisfactory, the court shall upon receipt of notice thereof from the Veterans Administration require the guardian forthwith to file an account which shall be subject in all respects to the next succeeding paragraphs. Any account filed with the Veterans Administration and approved by the Chief Attorney thereof may be filed with the court and be approved by the court without hearing, unless a hearing thereon be requested by some party in interest.

(B) The guardian, at the time of filing any account with the court or Veterans Administration shall exhibit all securities or investments held by him to an officer of the bank or
