

Laws of Maryland and Baltimore City Charter (1938 Edition), title "Baltimore City", sub-title "Special Funds", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

946. In addition to the sums of money now authorized by law to be paid out of the fund as above constituted and designated, the said Police Commissioner is empowered whenever, in his opinion, the efficiency of the service may require it, to retire any officer of police, policemen, detective, clerk or turnkey appointed by him; and the said Police Commissioner shall pay to such officers of police, policeman, detective, clerk or turnkey so retired, in monthly instalments, out of said fund, for life, a sum of money equal to one-half the amount of money currently paid monthly to an officer of police, policeman, detective, clerk or turnkey, as provided by law; provided, however, he shall have served faithfully not less than sixteen years as such officer of police, policeman, detective, clerk or turnkey, or shall have been permanently disabled in the discharge of his duty as such officer of police, policeman, detective, clerk or turnkey. Provided, however, that no officer of police, policeman, detective, clerk or turnkey appointed after June 1, 1943, shall be retired until he shall have served not less than twenty years or shall have been permanently disabled in the discharge of his duties. In the event at any time of an increase in the pay of officers of police, policeman, detective, clerk or turnkey, every officer of police, policeman, detective, clerk or turnkey, who shall have been or shall subsequently be retired by the said Police Commissioner shall be entitled to and the said Police Commissioner shall pay to him in the manner and at and for the length of time provided in this section for the pay of the members of the police force who shall be retired or shall have been retired, a sum equal to one-half of the remuneration of the active members of the Police Department holding the same rank or grade at the time of their retirement, to the end and effect that every retired officer of police, policeman, etc., shall receive the same remuneration as every other retired officer of police, policeman, etc., of like grade or rank, and no less. Provided, however, that sergeants who are now or have heretofore been assigned to the Traffic Court in accordance with the provisions of Section 205 of Article 56, of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, who, under the provisions of said section receive the salary of lieutenants while acting in said Traffic Court, shall be subject to the same rights and duties in regard to the Pension Fund, as are now or may hereafter be given or imposed by law relating to lieutenants, and from and after the passage of this Act shall have and be
