

long as any bonds which may have been assumed by the said Commissioners under the provisions of this Act are outstanding or so long as any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are outstanding, to annually levy a tax on every $100 worth of assessable property in the Town of Bel Air in such amount as may be necessary to so supplement the "Water Fund" as to meet, when due and payable, the interest on all such bonds and to redeem at maturity all such bonds in the full principal amount thereof.

139I. Whenever any charge for water supplied from the said water system shall be and remain in arrears for a period of thirty (30) days after the same shall have become due and payable or whenever the occupant of any premises to which water is being supplied from the said system shall violate any of the rules or regulations under which the said water is supplied, the said Commissioners may, in their discretion, cut off the water supply from such premises after they shall have given the occupant of such premises five (5) days' notice in writing of their intention so to do. All charges for water supplied to any premises shall be a lien upon such premises until such charge, with whatever interest may have accrued thereon, shall have been satisfied in full to the same extent and to be collectible in the same manner as arrearages of taxes are collectible in the Town of Bel Air.

139J. In addition to the powers expressly conferred by this Act, The Commissioners of Bel Air shall have such other powers as are incident to, or a necessary consequence of such expressly conferred powers, which other powers shall include the right to pass all ordinances not inconsistent with the powers granted by this Act as may be deemed necessary for the proper operation, preservation and protection of said water system and to attach reasonable penalties to the ordinances of The Commissioners of Bel Air for the violation thereof; to formulate, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations necessary for the proper conduct of the said water system; and from time to time to repeal, alter or amend such ordinances, rules and regulations.
