death by accident. Nothing contained in this sub-section shall operate to prevent a Company from adjusting the amount of insurance and non-forfeiture benefits in the event of misstatement of age of the insured, nor shall anything contained in this sub-section apply to an application for reinstatement of a lapsed policy, and a reinstated policy shall be contestable on account of fraud or misrepresentation of material facts pertaining to the reinstatement for the same period after reinstatement as provided in the policy with respect to the original issue.

(E) A provision that if the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

(F) A provision for non-forfeiture benefits and cash surrender values in accordance with the requirements of Section 130A or 130B.

(G) A table showing in figures the cash values and the options available under the policy each year upon default in premium payments, during at least the first twenty years of the policy, or during the premium paying period, if less than twenty years.

(H) A provision that at any time within one year after default in the payment of premiums the policy, if not previously surrendered for cash, or if the period of extended insurance has not expired (if the policy should be running under an extended insurance non-forfeiture provision) may be reinstated upon written application and upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the Company and payment of arrears of premiums and the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness to the Company upon said policy, with interest on said premiums and indebtedness at a rate not exceeding 6% per annum.

(I) The provisions of this section shall not apply to policies issued or granted pursuant to the non-forfeiture provisions prescribed in Sub-section F of this section.

(J) Any policy may be issued or delivered in this State which, in the opinion of the Commissioner, contains provisions on any one or more of the several foregoing requirements more favorable to the policyholder than hereinbefore required.

(K) The policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of any other State, territory, or foreign government, may contain, when issued or delivered in this State, any provision which may be required by the laws of the State or government under which the company is organized, and the
