

(1930 Edition), title "Somerset County", sub-title "Oysters and Clams", defining Tenth's and Porpoise Points, in Somerset County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 267 of Article 20 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Somerset County", sub-title "Oysters and Clams", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments; to read as follows:

267. It shall not be lawful for any person to employ any canoe, boat or vessel in catching or taking oysters with scoop, scrape, drag or dredge or any similar instrument, either on public or private beds within the waters of the Great Annapomesset River, in Somerset County, east of a straight line from Tenth's Point, on the south side of said river, to Porpoise Point, on the north side of said river; for the purposes of this section, Tenth's Point shall be considered to be the easterly point of Marsh at entrance into small creek shown on published chart 7 of the Maryland Oyster Survey of 1907 at approximate position, latitude $38^{\circ} 2' 19.20''$ and longitude $75^{\circ} 51' 39.47''$; and Porpoise Point shall be considered to be the most westerly point of Marsh westerly of United States Coast and Geodetic Survey Triangulation Station "Has"; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prevent the taking of crabs.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 4, 1943.

CHAPTER 667.

(House Bill 765)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sub-section (18) of Section 6 of Chapter 756 of the Acts of 1939, entitled "An Act to authorize the creation of a State debt in the aggregate amount of Four Million, One Hundred and Thirty Thousand Dollars ($4,130,000.00), the proceeds thereof to be used for certain necessary building construction and equipment purposes for the State, for the acquisition of Morgan College or the establishment of a State College for Negroes, and for forestry and other purposes, and to provide generally for the issue and sale of Certificates of Indebtedness evidencing such loan." providing that the balance
