

compliance with all rules and regulations of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County adopted under the authority of Section 65 of this Act, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law or by the County Commissioners aforesaid not inconsistent with this Act. The Building Inspectors of Baltimore County shall, under the direction of the Buildings Engineer, perform such duties as he may require of them in connection with the building laws, rules or regulations of Baltimore County.

67. It shall be the duty of the Buildings Engineer of Baltimore County to provide for the inspection and visiting of all theatres, hotels, public halls, night clubs, taverns, manufacturing establishments, restaurants, churches, school houses, places of amusement, and also any and all other buildings open to and/or used for public assemblages, gatherings, or the congregation in any manner of members of the public, whether any of said hereinbefore enumerated buildings were erected prior to or after the passage of this Act, for the purpose of ascertaining if said buildings have the proper means of exit in case of fire or panic. If, on examination, it shall be determined by the Buildings Engineer that any of said buildings as herein enumerated have not the proper means of exit in case of fire or panic, then the Buildings Engineer shall notify in writing the owners, trustees, lessees, tenants or occupants of said buildings as herein enumerated, so to improve and correct the same as to provide the proper means of exit in case of fire or panic as the Buildings Engineer may deem proper and necessary. Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail to comply with the aforesaid notice within ten days of the date of said notice, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $100.00, and in addition, $25.00 per day for each and every day that said building is kept open after ten days from the date of the notice herein provided for, and shall be subject to injunction by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in equity, as prescribed in Section 65 thereof. It shall be the duty of the School Commissioners of Baltimore County to comply with all the building regulations adopted by the County Commissioners under the provisions of this Act; and in the event of the failure of said School Commissioners to comply with the provisions of this Act, the County Commissioners shall have the power to contract for the doing of such work and shall deduct the cost thereof from the amount levied for the support of schools of the county.
