CHAPTER 101.

(Senate Bill 104)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 241A of Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Worcester County," sub-title "Refuse—Dumping," as said section was enacted by Chapter 682 of the Acts of 1941, prohibiting the maintenance of dumps within five hundred (500) feet of any public highway in Worcester County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 241A of Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Worcester County," sub-title "Refuse—Dumping," as said section was enacted by Chapter 682 of the Acts of 1941, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

241A. It shall be unlawful for any person to maintain or to permit to be maintained a public dump or a lot on which refuse, trash or junk is deposited or stored within five hundred (500) feet of a public highway in Worcester County, or for any person to throw, dump or deposit any trash, junk or other refuse upon the same or to dismantle any motor vehicle thereon, unless a substantial wood fence at least six (6) feet high and with a space of not more than one inch between the boards, shall be erected along said highway in front of said lot, but any incorporated town in said County may dump or throw trash or other refuse in any lowland or gully for use as a fill. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each such violation, and each day on which such violation continues shall be considered a separate offense.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved March 11, 1943.
