

RACCOON AND OPOSSUM.

65. No person may hunt any raccoon or opossum except after sunset and before sunrise of any day between November 1 and the next succeeding January 31 inclusive. No person shall hunt any raccoon or opossum between sunrise and midnight Sunday. No person shall cut a tree for the purpose of catching, killing, or dislodging a raccoon or opossum without the consent of the owner of such tree. No person may at any time set or otherwise use any steel trap or other similar device to catch any raccoon or opossum.

(a) No person shall between February 1 and October 31 inclusive shake or throw out of any tree or hollow any raccoon or opossum. Every person hunting raccoon or opossum must have a hunters license for the current year in possession and tag displayed on outer garment.

(b) No person may have any raccoon or opossum alive during any closed season in his possession unless he first procures a permit from the State Game Warden.

(c) Any raccoon which destroys a muskrat or its home in the marsh areas of this State may be hunted or killed at any time by the owner of said marsh or his employees only. It shall be lawful for any owner of an impounded lake to kill muskrats which are destroying their embankment or dam of said lake or lakes at any time.

66. Any person or persons found guilty before any justice of the Peace of this State of violating any provisions of Sections 64 to 66 inclusive, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more than Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) for each and every offense, and in addition to said fine shall be fined Five Dollars ($5.00) for each skin or animal in possession in violation of the law. All such skins, pelts, or meats, or illegal devices found in any person's possession in violation of this sub-title shall be confiscated by the officer making the arrest and turned over to the Game Warden who may dispose of same as he may deem advisable for the best interest of the State.

RAISING GAME IN CAPTIVITY.

67. Any person desiring to raise and sell game birds or game animals of any species on land or water of which he is the bona fide owner or lessee may make application in writing to the Game Warden of this State for a license so to do. The Game Warden, upon receipt of a license fee of Five Dollars ($5.00) may issue to the applicant a Breeder's License per-