

the precinct or district, the Board of Registry shall so indicate on said cards or loose-leaf page by proper notation but shall not be required to draw a line in red ink as provided in Sub-section 4 of Section 15 of this Article.

(c) The provisions of Sub-sections 6, 7 and 9 of Section 15 of this Article shall not apply except insofar as they may be applicable to the use of cards or loose-leaf pages instead of permanently bound registry books.

(d) In carrying out the provisions of Section 18 of this Article the Board of Registry shall, instead of drawing a line in red ink through the name and other entries with respect to a voter, certify to the Board of Supervisors of Elections of said County the names of all persons whom they shall have determined not to be qualified voters and upon receipt of such certification said Board of Supervisors shall make an appropriate notation to this effect on said voter's card or loose-leaf page and shall remove said card or page from the book of registry, and the elimination of all names from said books of registry, whether by reason of death, removal, disqualification or otherwise, shall be effected in like manner by the Supervisors of Elections of said County upon the certification of the Boards of Registry. All such cards or loose-leaf pages removed from said books of registry shall be retained in the office of the Supervisors of Elections for a period of five years open to public inspection.

(e) The Board of Registry shall not be required to sign their names under the last name registered under each letter of the registers as provided in Section 19 of this Article, said provisions being inapplicable to registration upon cards or loose-leaf pages as herein provided.

(f) In carrying out the provisions of paragraph (b) of Section 34 of this Article with respect to canceling the registration of any voter who has not voted at least once at a primary, general or special election within the five preceding calendar years, the Board of Supervisors of Elections shall remove the cards or loose-leaf pages of said voter from the registry books and place the same in a transfer file instead of causing the registration of such voter to be canceled by erasing his name from the registry.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all provisions of this Article with respect to the registration of voters and the keeping and maintaining of records thereof which are inconsistent with and inapplicable to the use of cards or loose-leaf pages shall not apply in any county adopting such cards or loose-leaf pages.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Supervisors of Elections are hereby authorized to acquire, maintain and
