

on the top thereof C 1927 No. 2 set down on the southwestward side of Glasgow Street; (5) then S. 31 degrees 50 minutes west to a point where it intersects the existing division line between the First and Second Wards which is a line drawn from the southeast corner of Gay and High Streets and extends in a northwestward direction and parallel to Glasgow Street; (6) thence along said division line reversed to a point where it intersects the old 1910 City limits; (7) thence along said 1910 City limits S. 21 degrees 40 minutes W. to a point where it intersects the northeast side of Park Lane; (8) thence along the northeast side of Park Lane to a point where it intersects the northwestward side of the property now owned by Fred Lucas and known as The Baseball Park; (9) thence along the northwestward side of the said Baseball Park until it intersects the northeastward side thereof; (10) thence along the northeastward side to the southeastward side thereof; (11) thence along a line which is the southeastward side of the said Baseball Park extended in a northeastward direction to a point where it intersects the division line between the first and second wards and which has already been fully described above; (12) thence along said division line to the southeast corner of Gay and High Streets; (13) thence along the northwest edge of High Street to Court Lane; (14) thence along Court Lane to the place of beginning.

(c) Second Ward: Beginning for the outlines of the same at the southeast corner of High and Gay Streets: (1) thence in a southerly direction parallel with Pine Street to a boundary planted in the middle of Muir Street distant four hundred and eighty-three feet in a westward direction from the curb of the westward side of Race Street; (2) thence in a line parallel with Pine Street in a southward direction a distance of one hundred and ninety-four and seven-tenths feet to another bounder there planted; (3) thence in a southeast direction three hundred and forty-eight feet to the northwest corner of the store formerly occupied by E. M. Skinner and Brother, said last-named bounder being one hundred and thirty-four feet distant from the westward curb of Race Street; (4) thence in a southward direction parallel with Pine Street to a bounder planted in the middle of Washington Street; (5) thence with the middle of Washington Street in a westward direction three hundred and forty-eight feet to a bounder there planted; (6) thence parallel with Pine Street to the southerly side of Boundary Avenue; thence along a line parallel with Pine Street and one hundred and fifty feet from the easterly side thereof to the southeasterly side of Bayly Road; (7) thence along said southeasterly side of Bayly Road in a southwesterly direction to a point where it intersects a line drawn parallel to the westerly side of Pine Street and one hundred and fifty feet therefrom; (8) thence