

along said westerly parallel line in northerly direction until it intersects the 1910 City limits which is the southerly side of Boundary Avenue extended; (9) thence along said 1910 City limits in westward direction to a point where said City limits turns to a northeasterly direction; (10) thence along said 1910 City limits in a northeasterly direction to a point that is one hundred and fifty feet from the southerly side of Washington Street; (11) thence in a westerly direction, parallel to and 150 feet distant from the south side of Washington Street; to the new 1927 western boundary line of the City; (12) thence with said 1927 western boundary line in a northerly direction to a boundary stone in the south side of Washington Street and marked C 1927 No. 3, thence with the south side of Washington Street to a point where it intersects the 1910 City limits; (13) thence with the 1910 City limits N. 21 degrees 40 minutes E. to a point where it intersects the northeast side of Park Lane; (14) thence along the northeast side of Park Lane to a point where it intersects the north-westward side of the property now owned by Fred Lucas and known as The Baseball Park; (15) thence along the north-westward side of said Baseball Park until it intersects the northeastward side thereof; (16) thence along the northeastward side of the southeastward side thereof; (17) thence along a line which is the southeastward side of the said Baseball Park extended in a northeastward direction to a point where it intersects the division line between the First and Second Wards and which is described as a line down from the southeast corner of Gay and High Streets and extends in a northwesterly direction and parallel to Glasgow Street; (18) thence along said division line reversed to the southeast corner of Gay and High Streets, to the place of beginning.

(d) Third Ward: This ward begins at the foot of Gay Street; thence with Court Lane to the northwest edge of High Street; thence with the northwest edge of High Street to a point opposite the southeast corner of High Street and Gay Alley; thence across High Street to the southeast corner of High Street and Gay Alley; thence in a southerly direction, parallel with Pine Street, to the middle of Muir Street; thence with the middle of Muir Street to the middle of Cambridge Creek; thence down the middle of Cambridge Creek to intersect the first line of the First Ward, and therewith to the place of beginning.

(e) Fourth Ward: This ward begins at the foot of Muir Street; thence with the middle of Muir Street to a boundary planted in the middle of said Muir Street distant four hundred and eighty-three feet in a westward direction, from the curb on the westward side of Race Street; thence in a southeast direction parallel with Pine Street, one hundred and