

ninety-four and seven-tenths feet to a boundary there planted; thence in a southeastward direction three hundred and forty-eight feet to the northwest corner of the store now occupied by E. M. Skinner & Brother. Said last-named boundary being one hundred and thirty-four feet distant from the westward curb of Race Street; thence in a southward direction parallel with Pine Street to a boundary planted in the middle of Washington Street; thence three hundred and forty-eight feet with the middle of Washington Street in a westward direction to a boundary there planted; thence with a line parallel with Pine Street to the southern limits of the town; thence with the southern and eastern limits of said town to the foot of Cemetery Avenue and the middle of Cambridge Creek; thence down the middle of Cambridge Creek to a point opposite the middle of Muir Street; thence to the place of beginning.

(f) Fifth Ward: This ward begins at the middle of Cambridge Creek on the line from the foot of Cemetery Avenue parallel with Maryland Avenue in East Cambridge; thence with said line to the stone on the county road to East Cambridge; thence with the extreme eastern boundary line to the Choptank River; and out into the said river in the same direction to the middle thereof; thence down the middle of said river to intersect the line of the First Ward; thence with said line to the mouth of Cambridge Creek; thence up said creek with the middle thereof to the place of beginning.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Boundary lines of the First and Second Wards of the City of Cambridge, shall henceforth be, and the same are as hereinbefore set forth and described.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any and all laws or parts of laws, or any part or parts of the Charter of the City conflicting in any way herewith are hereby repealed, with respect to the changes herein enacted and granted, to the extent of such conflict.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved June 1, 1948.