

penses of the Commission Allocated or Prorated to Maintenance; Accounting Supervision; Legal Expenses; Traveling, Transportation and Subsistence Expenses;

(b) (Engineering.) (Other than engineering by District Engineers and their staffs.) Preparation of Plans and Specifications; Estimates; Surveys, Inspection; Tests of Materials; Traveling, Transportation and Subsistence Expenses of Engineers Assigned to Maintenance;

(c) (Superintendence by Districts.) District Engineers; Staffs of District Engineers; Office Expenses; Office Supplies; Traveling, Transportation and Subsistence Expenses of District Engineers and their staffs;

(d) Roadway Surface Maintenance by Districts and by Types of Surface within each District;

(e) Oiling of Roads by Districts;

(f) Maintenance of Shoulders by Districts;

(g) Drainage Maintenance by Districts;

(h) Maintenance of Bridges and Structures by Districts;

(i) Right of Way Maintenance by Districts;

(j) (Traffic Service Maintenance by Districts.) Snow removal; Cindering; Highway Markers; Lane Markers; Traffic Lights; Snow Fences;

(k) Maintenance of Buildings by Districts;

(l) Maintenance of Equipment by Districts;

(m) Purchase of Equipment by Districts;

(n) Purchase of Material by Districts;

(o) Inventory Account of Materials and Supplies by Districts;

(p) (Miscellaneous Costs by Districts.) Items of expense not properly covered under the headings (a) to (o), inclusive.

In addition the State Roads Commission shall so keep its accounts with respect to each district as to make readily obtainable information relating substantially to items of work in unit quantities such as square yards of roadway surface of each type patched or repaired, square yards of roadway surface receiving oil treatment, square yards of shoulder work, snow removal in miles of road and other such quantities of work performed, and shall file with the Governor within ninety days after the end of each fiscal year or as soon after ninety days as may be practicable, a complete report which shall be open to public inspection on the status as of the end