

28. No boy under 16 years of age IN ANY CITY HAVING A POPULATION OF 20,000 OR MORE shall distribute, sell, expose or offer for sale in any street or public place any newspapers, magazines, or periodicals, or work in any of the trades or occupations mentioned in Section 28 27 unless he complies with all the legal requirements concerning school attendance and unless a license as hereinafter provided shall have been issued to him by the officer authorized to issue such license upon the application in writing or in person of the parent, guardian or custodian of the minor desiring such license or in case the minor has no living parent, guardian or custodian, then upon the application in writing or in person of his next friend, being an adult, 21 years of age or over.

29. (a) Such license shall not be issued until the issuing officer shall have received, examined and approved the following papers duly executed, viz:

(b) Evidence that such boy is of the age required by Section 27 or 28 26 OR 27 as the case may be. Such evidence of age shall consist of the proof of age required for the issuing of an employment certificate as specified in Section 25 24 sub-section (d) of the sub-title.

(c) A school record if the school is in session signed by the principal or chief executive officer of the school the boy is attending, stating that the boy is attending school and giving the grade the boy has attained. After having received, examined and approved such paper, the officer shall have authority in his discretion to issue to the boy a license provided, that in the case of a boy between the age of 14 and 16 having an employment certificate, such certificate shall be accepted by the officer issuing such license in lieu of any other requirements.

30. Such license shall state the name and the date and place of birth of the boy, the name and address of the parent or legal guardian or custodian or next friend making application for the license, and shall describe the color of the hair and eyes, the height and weight and any distinguishing facial marks of the boy, and shall further state that the papers required by the preceding sections have been duly examined and signed. Every such license on its reverse side shall be signed by the boy in whose name it is issued, and every application form for the license shall be signed by the parent, legal guardian, custodian or next friend.

31. The license provided for herein shall be carried at all times by such boy while so working. The license shall re-
