

main in full force and effect for the duration of the time the boy is so engaged in the same occupation and for the same employer except if the license be revoked as provided in Section 25 34 of this sub-title. No boy to whom such license is issued shall transfer the same to any other person. He shall exhibit the license upon demand at any time to any officer charged with the duty of enforcing the provisions of this sub-title relating to street trades.

32. No boy under 16 to whom a license is issued as provided for in the preceding sections of this sub-title shall distribute, sell, expose or offer for sale, any newspapers, magazines or periodicals, or work in any of the trades or occupations mentioned in Section 28 27 in any street or public place after eight o'clock in the evening, or before six o'clock in the morning nor during the hours when the public schools in the city in which such child resides are in session. Except that boys 14 and 15 years of age may be permitted to sell, serve or distribute newspapers until 10 p. m. on Friday and Saturday nights, provided, that on the other nights of the week they do not sell, serve or distribute newspapers later than 7:30 p. m.

33. Any minor IN ANY CITY HAVING A POPULATION OF 20,000 OR MORE who shall distribute, sell, expose or offer for sale newspapers, magazines or periodicals, or shall work at any of the trades or occupations mentioned in Section 28 27 in violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title may be arrested by an officer or inspector charged with the enforcement of this sub-title or by any probation officer of a juvenile court and brought before the juvenile court if there be any juvenile court in the city where such child resides, or, if not, before any court or magistrate having jurisdiction over offenses committed by children, and shall be dealt with according to law.

34. Upon the recommendation of the principal or chief executive officer of the school which a child is attending or upon the complaint of any officer charged with the duty of enforcing this sub-title, or of any police officer, supervisor of pupil personnel, or probation officer of juvenile court, the license of any child who violates any of the provisions of this sub-title or who becomes delinquent or fails to comply with all the legal requirements concerning school attendance, may be revoked by the officer issuing the license, or the working at any of the occupations heretofore mentioned in any street or public place by any boy after notice of the revocation of the license, shall be deemed a violation of this sub-title.
