

$50.00 for the first offense, not less than $25.00 and not more than $100.00 for the second offense and not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 for any subsequent offense, or in addition to such fine in the case of such subsequent offense, may be confined to jail for not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days.

46. Any person who either for himself or herself or as an agent of any other person or of any corporation, furnishes or sells to any minor any article of any description with the knowledge that the minor intends to sell or distribute the article in violation of the provisions of this sub-title, or who shall sell or furnish articles of any description to a minor or who shall furnish or sell to any minor required to have a license as provided by Section 29 28 any newspapers, magazines or periodicals with the knowledge that said minor intends to sell or distribute the same, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $50.00 for the first offense, not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 for the second offense and not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 for any subsequent offense, and, in addition to such fine in the case of such subsequent offense, may, in the discretion of the court, be confined in jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days; and any sale of such articles at less than the current retail price thereof shall be prima facie evidence that the person so selling had knowledge that the minor to whom said sale was made intended to re-sell said article.

47. Whoever continues to employ any minor in violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title, after being notified thereof in writing by a factory inspector, supervisor of pupil personnel or other officer charged with the enforcement of this sub-title, shall for every day thereafter that such employment continues be fined $20.00.

48. Whoever employs, procures, permits or suffers a minor to be employed in violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $10.00 nor more than $50.00 for the first offense, not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 for the second offense and not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 for any subsequent offense, or in addition to such fine in the case of such subsequent offense, may be confined in jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days. Any employment contrary to the provisions of this sub-title shall be prima facie evidence of guilt both as to employer and the person having control of the child.
