

beginning of the next regular jury term. A box of the form aforesaid shall be procured and of convenient size, and said box shall be divided into as many compartments as there may be election districts in said county, shall be numbered to correspond with the election districts in said county, and the names of the persons selected as aforesaid shall be placed by the said judges in the said compartments of said box, respectively, which bear the number of election districts where the persons so selected, respectively reside, and there shall then be drawn in the manner hereinbefore provided for the other counties. [Two names from Compartment No. 1, two names from No. 2, three from No. 3, six from No. 4, four from No. 5, two from No. 6, eight from No. 7, three from No. 8, three from No. 9, two from No. 10, two from No. 11, two from No. 12 and nine from No. 13.] If 72 names are drawn, they shall be drawn as follows: three names from Compartment No. 1, three names from No. 2, five names from No. 3, nine names from No. 4, six names from No. 5, three names from No. 6, twelve names from No. 7, four names from No. 8, four names from No. 9, three names from No. 10, three names from No. 11, three names from No. 12, and fourteen names from No. 13. If more than 72 names are drawn, they shall be drawn in approximately the same ratio. No names which may be so drawn to serve as a regular juror in Montgomery County at any term of court shall be replaced in said box for a period of two years thereafter.

10. Of the forty-eight jurors drawn and summoned, the court at the beginning of the term for which they were drawn and summoned shall select and appoint one as foreman of the grand jury (except that in Montgomery County the foreman shall be selected from the original panel of three hundred names, with his name being included among the jurors drawn and summoned), and shall direct the clerk of said court to legibly write upon ballots the names of the remaining forty-seven jurors, and after carefully folding said ballots separately to place them in a box with a sliding top, and said clerk shall draw said ballots therefrom one at a time without looking into said box and the first twenty-two names drawn, with the foreman previously appointed, shall constitute the grand jury, and the remaining twenty-five names (or, in Montgomery County, the remaining number of names) shall constitute the petit jury for said term of court; whenever a vacancy shall occur in the position of foreman of the grand jury, either temporary or permanent, by death, absence, sickness or any other cause, the court shall have power to appoint some other member of the grand jury foreman as often as the neces-
