

ments," sub-title "Department of Correction," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

770. Each prisoner in any of said institutions shall be entitled to a diminution of the period of his confinement under the following rules and regulations:

(1) For each calendar month commencing on the first day of the month next after his arrival at the institution, during which he shall not be guilty of a violation of the discipline or any of the rules thereof and shall labor with diligence and fidelity, he shall be allowed a deduction of five days from each month of the period of the commitment or sentence.

(2) For each calendar month commencing on the first day of the month next after his arrival at the institution, during which under such regulations as shall be established by the Board of Correction he shall be deemed to have manifested exceptional industry, application and skill in the performance of industrial, agricultural or administrative tasks assigned to him, he may, in the discretion of the Board of Correction, be allowed an additional deduction of five more days from each month of the period of his commitment or sentence. This sub-section, as now amended, shall not be construed to authorize any additional deduction because of work performed before June 1, 1943, and all deductions for conduct and industry prior to that date shall be governed by this section as it read prior to June 1, 1941.

(3) For each calendar month commencing on the first day of the next month after his arrival at the institution, or for each calendar month beginning on June 1, 1950 for those who are inmates on that date, during which, under such rules and regulations as shall be established by the Board of Correction, he shall be deemed to have manifested satisfactory industry, application and progress in vocational and/or other educational and training courses assigned to him, he may, in the discretion of the Board of Correction, be allowed an additional deduction of five more days from each month of the period of his commitment or sentence. This sub-section shall not be construed to authorize any additional deduction because of industry or progress made in vocational or other educational training before June 1, 1950. Provided, that no prisoner shall be allowed a deduction of more than five days for any month under the combined provisions of Sub-sections (2) and (3) of this section.

[(3)] (4). For each and every violation of the rules and discipline of the institution, or want of fidelity or care in
