

T. HOLLIDAY HICKS, ESQ., GOVERNOR. 1860.

CHAPTER 103.

CHAP. 103.

AN ACT making valid two Indentures made between J. B. Nichols and Horatio Ridout of the one part and George J. Collins of the other part. Passed Feb. 24, 1860.

WHEREAS, two indentures were executed on the twelfth day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight by and between J. B. Nichols and Horatio Ridout, justices of the peace in and for Anne Arundel county, of the one part, and George J. Collins, of said county of the other part, binding out as apprentices to the said George J. Collins, until they had attained the age of eighteen years, two free negroe girls named Nancy Smith and Ellen Banks; and whereas, the said indentures were erroneously recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit court for Anne Arundel county, instead of the Orphans' court for said county; Therefore; Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said indentures from the said J. B. Nichols and Horatio Ridout, to the said George J. Collins, be and the same are hereby made as valid and effective as if the same had been duly recorded in the Orphans' court of Anne Arundel county; Provided, the said indenture shall be recorded in the said Orphans' court within three months from the passage of this act. Made valid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.
