

materials as the president and board of directors chosen under the provisions of this act, shall direct, which road shall be of the width of sixty feet, of which at least eighteen feet shall be composed of broken stone, gravel or other hard substance, with good and sufficient bridges over any stream crossing the same, and in order more particularly to specify said route; Be it further enacted, That said road shall commence as aforesaid at or near the present limits of the city of Baltimore, and near the western termination of McDonough street, as laid out on the plat of said city, and shall run thence in a southwesterly direction with and along the line of a road sixty-feet wide, ordered to be laid out as a public road by the county commissioners of Baltimore county, from the city of Baltimore to the Sulphur Spring Road, on the tenth day of November, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, to a point to be designated by said company in or near the lands of the Baltimore Manual Labor School, thence diverging to the west or north of west by the most eligible, convenient and practicable route to be designated by said company, through the lands of the Baltimore Manual Labor School, Michael K. Waterman, Bennet Walker and Gustavus W. Lurman, or such of them as may be necessary for the location of said avenue, to a point on the Rolling road, between the entrance to the residence of George A. Reinecker, and the entrance to the lane leading to the residence of George Richstein, thence across or along, and occupying the bed of the old Rolling road, to a point about east from the dairy of said George A. Reinecker, and thence westerly through the lands of said Reinecker, and at least sixty feet southerly from the said dairy, to the lands belonging to the estate of John Glenn, thence through said lands, still in a southwesterly direction, to a point at or near the dividing line between said lands and the lands of George Richstein, thence along or near said dividing line about three hundred yards, thence again through the lands of the estate of John Glenn, to a stream, thence along or near said stream to the extremity of the lands of the estate of John Glenn, and thence by the most practicable route to the terminus aforesaid on the Patapsco river.

CHAP. 113.
The road—
its beginning,
route and ter-
minus

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have the power and are hereby autho- Lateral road.