

assessment, who shall make oath before the said commissioners that they will faithfully and impartially make the same to the best of their judgment, and they shall be paid for their services by said commissioners out of the taxes levied as aforesaid. CHAP. 128.

SEC. 3. Any person who may deem himself aggrieved by said assessment may appeal for relief to the said commissioners within thirty days after the return made by the assessors. May appeal.

SEC. 4. The said commissioners shall have the power annually to make abatements and transfers, and to cause a new assessment to be made according to the provisions of the preceding sections, whenever they shall deem it necessary. Transfers, new assessments, &c.

SEC. 5. The said commissioners shall have power to purchase or condemn for the use of said town any land within a half of a mile of the limits of the same, not exceeding two acres, and shall pay the owner therefor such sum as may be agreed upon between them, and in case they cannot agree, they shall each appoint an arbitrator, with the power to them to call in a third; and in case the owner shall refuse or neglect to appoint an arbitrator after twenty days notice, the said commissioners shall appoint two persons with power to call in a third in case they disagree, and their award and valuation shall be final and conclusive, the said valuation to be paid within twelve months from the time of the award; the taxes levied as aforesaid shall be collected as State and county taxes are now collected, and the bailiff of said town shall have all the power of county collectors in enforcing the payment of the same. Power to purchase or condemn land.