

taught at his institution, to draw his warrant on the treasurer of the State for one hundred and sixty dollars per annum, for each deaf and dumb person taught in pursuance of his authority at said institution, payable to the president or superintendent thereof, in semi-annual payments, to commence in six months after said person shall be received into said institution; and the Governor shall also draw on the treasurer his warrant, payable to the proper party, for the expenses necessarily incurred in transporting and returning said deaf and dumb person; Provided, that the whole amount drawn from the treasury for the purposes aforesaid shall not exceed five thousand dollars in any one year; Provided further, that the Governor shall dispose of applications for the benefits of this act, in the order in which they may be made, and if the applications be more than sufficient to absorb the foregoing appropriation, he shall suspend action upon the excess until vacancies occur, or further provision be made by the General Assembly.

CHAP. 130.

Provisos.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth sections of article thirty-three of the Code of Public General Laws be and the same are hereby repealed, and the foregoing sections substituted therefor.

Repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

In force.

CHAPTER 130.

AN ACT for the relief of T. Yeates Walsh, one of the sureties on the official bonds of Nathaniel Hickman. Passed March 3, 1861.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That T. Yeates Walsh, one of the sureties on the official bonds of Nathaniel Hickman, as register of wills for Baltimore city, which bonds are now in suit in the Superior court of Baltimore city, be and he is hereby released from all responsibility to the State, on account of said bonds; Released from liability