

CHAP. 164. missioners who shall for this purpose on or before the first Monday in May next, procure a book or books, and it enter as follows, to wit: We whose names are hereunto subscribed, do promise to pay to the Green Spring Avenue Company, the sum of one hundred dollars for every share of stock in said company set opposite to our respective names, agreeably to the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled an act to amend an act to incorporate the Green Spring Avenue Company, passed at January session, eighteen hundred and sixty, witness our hands this                      day of eighteen hundred and sixty                      , and the said commissioners after at least two weeks notice in one or more newspapers published in Baltimore city, and in one or more newspapers published in Baltimore county, of the time and place of opening said subscription books, shall meet at the time and place appointed at which meeting, at least three of said commissioners shall attend and shall permit all persons and corporations who shall offer to subscribe in person, or by attorney, for stock in said company in the books aforesaid, which shall be kept open for that purpose, at least four hours in every day for three successive days, if necessary, and if the whole of said capital stock be not then subscribed for, the said commissioners may re-open said books at such time and place as they may think fit, under their direction, or that of any three of them, for further subscriptions from time to time until the whole of said stock be subscribed for, and every person subscribing for the stock of said company, for himself or by attorney, shall on subscribing pay to the attending commissioners one dollar for every share so subscribed, out of which shall be deducted the expenses attending the taking of subscription and all the incidental charges and the residue shall be deposited in one of the Banks of Baltimore to credit of said company, subject to the order of the managers thereof.

Valid.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all subscriptions of stock made by any person or corporation in the presence of any one of the aforesaid commissioners, and at any other place or time than the place or time designated in the notice aforesaid, shall be deemed as valid and binding as if the said stock were subscribed before said commissioners in the manner prescribed by the second section of this act.