

1860.

LAWs OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 224.

CHAPTER 223.

Passed March 7, 1860. AN ACT to compensate James T. Briscoe for the trial of the case of William Billingsly and others, vs. the State of Maryland, in the Court of Appeals, by appointment of the Governor.

Authorised to pay. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer be, and he is hereby authorized and required to pay to the order of James T. Briscoe, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, the sum of two hundred dollars, the same being compensation for the trial of the case of William Billingsly and others, vs. the State of Maryland, in the Court of Appeals, by appointment of the Governor.

In force. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 224.

Passed March 7, 1860. AN ACT to incorporate the Wyoming Tribe, No. thirty-seven, Improved Order of Red Men, of Uniontown, Maryland.

Incorporated. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Dennis Cookson, George H. Routson, David Segafoose, Edmund Shapley, Henry H. Harbaugh, and other officers and members of Wyoming Tribe, No. thirty-seven, Improved Order of Red Men, working under the charter from the Great Council of Maryland, and their successors, be incorporated and made a body politic and corporate, by the name and number of Wyoming Tribe, No. thirty-seven, of Improved Order of Red Men of the State of Maryland, and by that name may sue and be sued, and have a common seal, and the same at their pleasure alter, and entitled to use the powers and privileges incident to such corporation.

Restriction. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said corporation shall not be permitted to issue any note, token, device, or scrip, or other evidence of debt,