CHAPTER 229.

Passed March 7, 1860. AN ACT to amend the eighth article of the Code of Public Local Laws, by adding thereto the following sections, giving to the president and commissioners of the village of Port Deposit power to pave the streets and borrow money on the credit of the corporation.

Power to open streets, pave, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the president and commissioners of the village of Port Deposit shall have full power to pave the streets of said village, and may assess and levy the expenses thereof upon the tax payers of said village generally, or may assess and levy the same on the owners of the property fronting on the street to be paved rateably according to the number of feet front they may respectively own on such streets, but when the property so fronting is unimproved and yields no rent or income to the owner, the tax for such paving shall be levied generally on the tax payers of the village.

May borrow money.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said president and commissioners may borrow on the faith of
