

CHAP. 236. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said illegitimate children of the said Isaac Henry and Elizabeth Williams, be, and they are hereby declared, as capable in law of inheriting property, real or personal, from their said father, as if they had been born in lawful wedlock.

Inheriting property.

In force. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 236.

Passed March 9, 1860. AN ACT to provide for printing, indexing and distributing the Code.

Incorporation of laws in the code. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry C. Mackall be, and he is hereby appointed, to incorporate the laws of this present session in the code, and that he prepare the same for the printer who may be employed to reprint the code, and that he supervise the printing of the same.

Index. SEC. 2. And the said Henry C. Mackall is hereby appointed to make a full and particular index of of the code, with the laws of the present session incorporated.

Duty of clerk of the Court of Appeals. SEC. 3. The clerk of the court of Appeals is hereby directed and required to permit the said Henry C. Mackall to take copies of all the public, general and local laws, passed at this session, and to aid him therein, so as to enable him to get said copies as speedily as possible, and the said clerk shall also deliver to the said Henry C. Mackall one of the copies of the code of public general and public local laws, deposited with him under the act of Assembly.

Compensation. SEC. 4. The said Henry C. Mackall shall be paid for making the said index the sum of one thousand dollars, and for incorporating the laws of this present session, and superintending the printing of the code, the sum of one thousand dollars, and the treasurer, on the warrant of the comptrol-