

CHAP. 246. ten dollars for every such offence, for the use of the county in which said forfeiture shall be incurred.

Road protected from injury.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully, by any means whatsoever, injure impair or destroy any part of said road, or any of its necessary works and buildings, or place any obstructions on said road, or if any person or persons shall effect or attempt to effect an entrance through any toll gate on said road, by force, violence or intimidation, such person or persons so offending, shall be subject to indictment in the Circuit court of the county wherein the offence shall be committed, and upon conviction of such offences, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Carriages,
&c.—how to be driven.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the drivers of carriages and vehicles of all kinds, shall keep their horses and vehicles on the right-hand side of said road, leaving the other side clear and free for vehicles to pass and repass, and if any driver shall offend against this provision, he shall forfeit and pay not exceeding ten dollars, to any person who shall be obstructed in his passage, the same to be recovered as in debt, with costs, before any justice of the peace of the county where such offence may occur.

Reservation.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the Legislature may amend or repeal this act at pleasure.

In force.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 246.

Passed March 7, 1860. AN ACT to correct the clerical errors upon the reprint of the Code.

Errors corrected.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That upon the printing of the Code, the following clerical errors shall be corrected: First, those stated at the end of the volume of Public General Laws as errata, correcting the same as follows: the errata reported on page 84, section 88,