

SEC. 32. If any hogshead of tobacco shall be brought to any warehouse for inspection, and the inspector shall refuse to pass the same, and the owner or other person bringing such tobacco will undertake to pick and separate the good from the bad, the lessee of such warehouse shall allow the use of the said warehouse, and of one or more of his prizes for prizing the tobacco so separated and repacked in the said hogshead, and if there be several hogsheads of tobacco belonging to several owners to be packed, repacked and prized at any warehouse, the owner or other person bringing the same, whose tobacco shall be first examined and refused, shall be first permitted so make use of such prize or prizes.

CHAP. 248.
Tobacco refused may be assorted and repacked in warehouse.

SEC. 33. No inspector or lessee shall take or convert to his own use, or otherwise dispose of any draughts or samples of tobacco drawn out of any hogshead, without the consent of the owner, but the same, if fit to pass, shall be delivered to the owner or other person offering the same for inspection, under the penalty of seventy-five cents for each sample.

Inspector prohibited from converting samples to his own use.

SEC. 34. All tobacco inspected in any warehouse, which may be condemned or stayed, shall be carefully, cased up and weighed, and the gross weight and tare entered upon a book kept for that purpose by the lessee, together with the number of breaks in such hogshead as may be stayed, and also the cause whether for order, scraps or w.t, together with any other appropriate remarks.

Condemned tobacco.

SEC. 35. All tobacco thus stayed shall with all convenient dispatch be shaken out, reconditioned and packed, under the supervision of the inspector, but by the lessee, and shall by the lessee be reweighed, and when inspected and certified, entered upon the books of the lessee as all other tobacco.

Tobacco reconditioned.

SEC. 36. The several lessees shall receive for reconditioning and packing all stayed tobacco, the following prices: for one or two breaks, one dollar; for a full stay, two dollars; for redrawing hogsheads not exceeding one thousand pounds, seventy-five cents; all hogsheads exceeding one thousand pounds, one dollar; and on all tobacco inspected and delivered for shipment, the lessee shall receive for outage on all hogsheads not exceeding eleven hundred pounds, one dollar and twenty-five cents;

Prices for reconditioning.