

CHAP. 248. on all hogsheads exceeding eleven hundred pounds, and not exceeding fifteen hundred pounds, one dollar and fifty-cents ; on all hogsheads over fifteen hundred pounds, two dollars ; in all cases to be paid by the shipper of the tobacco or his agent.

Removal. SEC. 37. The owner of any stayed tobacco or his agent shall have the privilege of removing the same from the warehouse free of all costs or charges whatever, but it shall not be lawful to remove any stayed tobacco from any warehouse to another except as all other tobacco is removed.

Weight of stayed tobacco ; its shipment, &c. SEC. 38. The several lessees may grant certificates of the weights of any stayed tobacco, at the request of the owner or his agent, which certificate shall state the condition of the said tobacco and the weights ; and where such tobacco shall be sold by the owner or his agent to a shipper, tobacconist or other person, and where said person is desirous of shipping or exporting in any other manner, the said tobacco in its stayed condition, he may do so upon paying the charges which are paid upon tobacco which has been inspected and passed, and the lessee shall state in the manifest, he shall make out the condition of said tobacco, and that said tobacco did not pass previous to its shipment.

Restriction. SEC. 39. No hand employed in any warehouse shall shake out, condition or repack any tobacco, without the express direction of the lessee, of such warehouse, and the lessee shall see that the conditioning or packing is done in a proper manner.

Scrap tobacco. SEC. 40. All scrap tobacco accruing in any warehouse shall be sold by the lessee of such warehouse to the best advantage, and the proceeds of such sales shall be quarterly accounted for to the Comptroller and paid upon his warrant to the treasurer for the benefit of the tobacco fund.

Cooperage. SEC. 41. All tobacco delivered at any warehouse for inspection in such condition as to require cooperage, shall be properly coopered and taken care of by the lessee and the owner or his agent charged for the same a sum not less than twenty-five cents, nor more than fifty cents for each hogshead thus coopered.

Advertisements. SEC. 42. Each lessee shall in the month of April, annually, cause to be inserted in some one of the Baltimore newspapers, once in each week, for three months, an advertisement, stating the name of the