

of the Legislature, shall be filled by the remaining CHAP. 248.
commissioners.

SEC. 53. Whenever the lease of any lessee of any said warehouses shall expire, such lessee shall deliver up the warehouse and its appurtenances, with all books and papers relating to the business of such warehouse, to the said commissioners or their order; and they may sue for and recover the same in the name of the State. Expiration of lease.

SEC. 54. Every lessee shall be entitled to the outage and storage on all tobacco inspected in his warehouse and ready for shipment, remaining on hand at the time of the expiration. Outage and storage.

SEC. 55. The property in the scales, ropes, blocks, machinery, iron and weights belonging to any warehouse, shall be so far vested in the lessee for the time being, as to vest authority in said lessee to prosecute any person for any trespass or felony committed upon the same. Trespass, &c.

SEC. 56. No lessee of any tobacco warehouses, or any person employed by him in said warehouse, shall be engaged in the purchase or sale of tobacco, except such tobacco as may be grown by said lessee or by the person so employed by him; nor shall it be lawful for any lessee or person employed by him to receive any gift or emolument whatever, for any favor or service rendered, except the lawful charges of such lessee, and the regular pay or hire of such person employed by said lessee in said warehouse, under the penalty of fifty dollars in the case of any lessee so convicted, and twenty dollars in the case of any employee in any warehouse; one half to the informer, the other to the Treasurer for the benefit of the tobacco funds. Lessees not to engage in the purchase or sale of tobacco, nor receive gifts, &c.

SEC. 57. And it shall be the duty of each lessee of each warehouse, to unstrip and prepare for inspection, all tobacco in regular succession, as it may arrive. Inspection in regular succession.

SEC. 58. This act to take effect from and after the first Monday in May next. In force.