

the several subscriptions, and also all money expended by them in prosecution of their said work, and shall once, at least, in every year, or oftener if required, submit such account to a general meeting of the stockholders, until the road shall be completed, and until all the costs, charges and expenses of effecting the same shall be fully paid and discharged, and the aggregate amount of such expenses shall be liquidated and ascertained, and if upon such liquidation, or when the capital stock shall be expended, it shall be found insufficient, it shall and may be lawful for the president, managers and company, to such an extent as shall be deemed sufficient to accomplish the works, to enlarge the capital stock of said company, and receive subscriptions on the original terms as before provided for in the second, third and fourth sections of this act. CHAP. 252.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That all wagoners and drivers of carriages of all kinds, whether of burden or pleasure, using the said road, shall, when passing by a carriage of slower draught, keep their horses and carriages to the right-hand side of said road, in the passing direction, leaving the other side of the road free and clear for other carriages to pass and repass, and if any driver shall offend against this provision, he shall forfeit and pay not exceeding ten dollars to any one who shall be obstructed in his passage and will warrant for the same, to be recovered, with costs, before any justice of the peace of the said county, in the same manner debts under ten dollars are recoverable, and all fines and forfeitures imposed by this act, not exceeding thirty dollars, shall be recoverable before any magistrate or justice of the peace, in the same manner as debts under ten dollars are recoverable. Vehicles—
how to be driven.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That the president and managers of said company shall keep a just and full account of all moneys received by their respective toll-gatherers, at their several and respective gates on said road, which account shall be on oath or affirmation, as the case may be, when required, and shall make a dividend of the clear profits and income thereof, not exceeding ten per cent., among the stockholders, which dividend shall be declared half yearly, in the months of January and July, and published and paid accordingly. Dividends.